DESTINATION WEDDING

FROM VERSACE, FENDI AND OVER 50 MAGAZINES TO YOUR MOST IMPORTANT DAY

I treat every single wedding that I photograph as though it were my own. Not only am I an award-winning and published photographer who dedicates love and passion for every photo I take and I am able to oversee the flow of photographing a wedding effortlessly. I am hyper aware of the amount of attention that goes into planning every detail of your big day: the centerpieces, the linens, the bows on the chairs, the candles you have lit to make the whole thing glow. I want you to be able to look back on the masterpiece that you created and be proud for decades to come. I will capture your dress glittering in the sun, the texture of that first slice of cake, the beautiful floral arrangements, and the smiles on your faces when you look at each other and the people who you love around you. I won't forget to get that ring shot, or miss the first kiss, or leap in front of your videographer in the middle of the ceremony.

I know what to look for, I know how to make it look like it is right out of a magazine, and I know how to keep everyone relaxed and happy while doing formals (trust me, I am efficient... I am often complimented on how painless mine are compared to other weddings guests have attended!)

You only get to do this once and I would love to share those special moments with you so you can relax and enjoy your wedding day without anxiety.

Working in Canada, USA and Mexico, Amanda has travelled the world totaling to 84 countries and all 7 continents and has lived in 11 countries. In 2023 + 2024 Amanda was awarded by the Canadian government, Quality Business Awards, for best Photographer in Vancouver, Canada. She also won the award for People's Choice Award for best Wedding Photographer in Canada in 2024 She has been named "Top 100 Women in Business" by Chanel, awarded by Facebook as Top 3% photographer in the world, labeled by Google as an Expert Photographer, shown in galleries internationally, been on multiple TV shows/ publications and her work as a photographer has been awarded and nominated. Traveling the world has taught Amanda a lot of patience, fresh perspective and new ways of life from the people she has met abroad. She is also an official photographer for Four Seasons Resorts internationally.

It is said a "photographer should shoot what they feel, not what they get" and her photography embodies the eye of someone who sees past the big picture delving deep to seek out that special feeling, thought, emotion or connection with the subject for the viewer. The little things, the little details are what matter. Her photos are inspired by natural beauty, light and detail that culminates luxurious editorial imagery.

Finding Amanda as our photographer was truly a blessing!! She is so professional, has such a great eye/vision, and made us feel extremely comfortable. We trusted her completely to capture everything and her photos turned out so much better than we even expected. She even worked with us to check out the venue and meet with me (the bride) before my wedding so that the wedding day would go smoothly. Amanda went above and beyond - she even worked with the makeup artists to photograph how the makeup reflected in pictures and made tweaks so that it would show up better. We're so blessed and lucky and will hire her for all our shoots in our future ❤️

Amanda is one of the best talented photographers in my life. I am so much thankful that she've done some of amazing photo works with me. She was really professional to make models feel comfy while taking photos in public areas and has good taste of lighting and photo spots! I wish I can do another collaborations in the near future.

Amanda was our photographer for our Bengali Hindu wedding and the photos are so incredibly beautiful! It's pure art! She captured every moment so perfectly and naturally. Amanda is also the kindest and sweetest person! It was an absolute pleasure and honour to be photographed by her on our special day!
